

Making the railway system
work better for society.

PERSONAL INFORMATION AIKATERINI (Catherine) FRAGKOULOPOULOU

POSITION IN THE
EUROPEAN UNION AGENCY FOR RAILWAYS

Alternate Member of the Management Board - GREECE

---

WORK EXPERIENCE

(from May 2002 to present)

Head of Railway Interoperability and Safety Department
Ministry of Infrastructure and Transport

- Monitoring the obligations that derive from the Safety Directive, the Interoperability Directive, the Train Drivers Directive and the legislation concerning the rail transport of dangerous goods. Cooperation with the Hellenic infrastructure manager (OSE) and National Safety Authority (RAS).

(from June 2001 to May 2002)

Transportation Engineer
Attiko Metro S.A.

- Transport modelling for strategic planning

(from November 1999 to April 2001)

Transportation Engineer
Athens Urban Transport Organisation S.A.

- Transportation studies concerning the promotion of priority measures for public transport in several major roads in Athens and Piraeus.
-

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

(from 1996 to 1997)

MSc in Transport
Imperial College/University College London (UCL)

(from 1991 to 1996)

Diploma in Rural and Surveying Engineering
National Technical University of Athens

---

MEMBERSHIPS

National representative in the RISC Committee.

---